Berlin, November 18. N. S.

SOME Days ago the King went to Charlottemberg, where he was attended by all the Privy-Council. On the 27th he is expected here, in order to review the old Battalion of Grenadiers that are in Garriſon at this Place. On the firſt of the next Month his Majeſty intends to make a general Review of the Artillery-Men, who are commanded to repair hither from all Parts of his Dominions for that purpoſe. The Method of Levying Men by Force, which hath been practiſed hitherto, having occaſion'd ſeveral Diſorders, his Majeſty hath thought fit to change it, and to oblige every Bayliwick to furniſh a certain number of Men to compleat his Troops. Count Flemming is gone from hence to Dreſden, and is expected back very ſoon. Before his Departure, he ſent Colonel Ranzaw to the Court of Denmark with ſome Propoſals concerning the Evacuation of Holſtein; and the March of the Troops to Lenzen is ſuſpended till the Colonel's return. In the mean time Matters are preparing for the intended Expedition, in caſe the King of Denmark ſhould not agree to a reaſonable Treaty.

Hamburgh, November 21. N. S. The contagious Diſtemper continues to abate very much in this City, and the number of thoſe that died laſt Week amounts to no more than Two hundred ſeventy five. We are inform'd, that his Imperial Majeſty hath fix'd on the 16th of the next Month to open the Conferences at Brunſwick. Count Schonborn, who is to preſide at them as the Emperor's Miniſter, intends to ſet out very ſoon for that Place. The Miniſters of the Confederate Princes, together with thoſe of Pruſſia and Hanover, will alſo be there at the Time appointed. But thoſe of Sweden give out, that the King their Maſter will never conſent to this Congreſs, unleſs the Miniſters of France are likewiſe admitted, and that he will enter into no Treaty without the Intervention of that Crown. On the other ſide, the Emperor hath abſolutely refuſed to grant Paſſports for them, and hath declar'd the Conferences ſhall begin without the Swediſh Plenipotentiaries, if they refuſe to come before the Day he hath named. Count Steinbock hath obtain'd leave of the King of Denmark to go to Copenhagen, ſince there is no likelihood of his being reſtor'd ſoon to Liberty; the Money that was deſign'd for the Ranſom of the Priſoners having been employ'd to pay the Garriſons of Wiſmar and Stralſund. It is ſaid, that neither the King nor the Senate of Sweden have approved of Count Meyerfeld's Negotiation relating to the Sequeſtration of Stetin. They are preparing at Stockholm, with great Diligence, to ſend a Reinforcement of Six thouſand Men into Finland, in order to hinder the Czar from making an Irruption into Sweden on that ſide. Theſe Troops are to be commanded by the Generals Lieve, Taube and Schommer. The Saxon Forces continue ſtill in Pomerania, and are in their Winter Quarters mix'd among the Pruſſians.

Hanover, November 21. N. S. Orders are come from Gohre to have the Palace made ready for the Reception of his Electoral Highneſs, who is expected here to morrow with the whole Court. The march of the Pruſſian Troops deſign'd for Holſtein hath been ſuſpended, and it is thought the Diſputes between the Kings of Denmark and Pruſſia will be amicably Accommodated. His Daniſh Majeſty hath again offer'd to raiſe the Blockade of Tonningen, and to reſtore the Dutchy of Gottorp, provided he may be allow'd to keep Poſſeſſion of that of Sleſwick, till the Concluſion of a general Peace, in order to reimburſe himſelf for the Expences he hath been at, ſince he enter'd into the Alliance. But the Duke-Adminiſtrator inſiſts upon the entire Reſtitution of that Dutchy. It is ſaid, the Daniſh Army is to be reinforc'd by ſome Battalions from Zeland, and that the Ships that are to tranſport them into Holſtein, are to bring ſome of the Swediſh Priſoners from thence into Zeland. We are likewiſe aſſur'd, that the King of Denmark intends to return very ſoon into Holſtein, that he may be in a readineſs to give his Inſtructions, either upon a Rupture, or in caſe a Treaty ſhould be enter'd upon for an Accommodation.

Utrecht, Nov. 24. N. S. Some Days ago the Miniſters of Spain receiv'd an Expreſs from Madrid, with the laſt Reſolutions of that Court, in relation to their Treaty of Peace with the States-General. They have ſince notified to the Dutch Plenipotentiaries the Purport of the Orders they received, which being ſuch as will remove the moſt material Difficulties in the Treaty, it is not doubted but the ſame will be concluded very ſpeedily. Yeſterday the Spaniſh Miniſters receiv'd another Expreſs from their Court, upon which they deſired a Conference with the Biſhop of London, and it was held accordingly at his Houſe. The Miniſters of Portugal were ſoon after in Conference with his Lordſhip, and another is appointed to Morrow, at the ſame Place, between them and thoſe of Spain. The Sieurs Buys and Goſlinga, who have aſſiſted during this Congreſs as Plenipotentiaries of the States-General, being appointed to go Ambaſſadors to the Court of France, are accordingly preparing to ſet out towards the end of this Month.

Hague, November 24. N. S. The Sieurs Buys, Van den Duſſen, and Randwich, Plenipotentiaries of this Republick, are [illegible]ently in Conference with the Deputies of the States General, upon the Subject of our Treaty of Peace with his Catholick Majeſty, and intend in a Day or two, to ſet out for Utrecht. Monſieur de Chateauneuf, Ambaſſador of France, hath lately preſented a Memorial in relation to ſome Merchant Ships taken by the Privateers of Zeeland. Our laſt advices from the Upper Rhine bring an account, that the Governor of the Caſtle of Fribourg had obtained a prolongation of the Truce for ſix Days more, in order to receive freſh Inſtructions from the Court of Vienna. The Earl of Eſſex is arrived here in his way to Geneva.

Bruſſels, November 25. N. S. The States General have conſented, that the Regency of the Spaniſh Netherlands ſhould take Poſſeſſion of the Cuſtom-houſes in the Frontier-Towns of their Barrier, and the Commiſſaries appointed for that purpoſe, ſet out from hence ſome Days ago. By this means the Duties of Exportation from the Spaniſh Netherlands to thoſe Parts, and the Duties of Importation
